The Problem

Even in today's troubling times, Thai Bangkok has been experiencing heavy traffic from us. The need to facilitate new orders in an efficient manner has never been higher. Direct Supply throughout it's Thai ordering years has experienced many problems like...

- What's the link to the menu?
- Who ordered a 33 without indicating their meat?
- Who ordered the 23 chicken medium that hasn't paid me on Google Pay?
- How much did my A1 cost?
- Why am I not being congratulated for my excellent choice of a 49 mild?
- Someone forgot my order?!
